

LYING DOWN, SHE COULDN'T BREATHE

Georgia Woman Says She Suffered From Asthma for Ten Years.

TROUBLES GONE NOW

Heartily Declares Lung-Vita Is the Best Medicine in the World.

"Lung-Vita is the best medicine in the world for asthma. I wish all people who suffer from this disease as I have would try Lung-Vita. I can't say enough for it and would not be without it for the world," says Mrs. T. R. O'Neal, of Trenton, Ga.

"I have suffered with asthma for the last ten years. During the winter months I would almost die with it. Every time I would take cold I would have a spell of asthma and would have to be propped up in bed to get my breath. I could scarcely breathe at all lying down. I tried different doctors and took everything I could hear of, but found no permanent relief until I took Lung-Vita. I began taking it last fall and continued it all through last winter and I am glad to say that this is the first winter in ten years that I have missed having a spell of asthma. I feel stronger in every way and I have done my housework this winter—something I haven't done since I have had asthma so bad, and I feel that I owe it all to Lung-Vita."

Lung-Vita is sold by druggists and dealers.—(Adv.)

Judge Bachman Goes to Washington on Business

(Special to The News.)
 Washington, June 7.—Judge Nathan B. Bachman, of Chattanooga, nominee for the supreme court, paid a visit to Senator McKellar this morning. Judge Bachman will remain in Washington several days on personal business.

JOINT MEETING OF PARTY EXECUTIVE COMMITTEES

A joint meeting of the republican and democratic executive committees has been called for 12:30 p.m. June 11. It will be held in the office of T. W. Stanfield in the Temple Court. Mr. Stanfield is chairman of the democratic committee and Emil Wassman is chairman of the republican committee. The meeting is at the instance of Mr. Wassman, who in a letter written to Chairman Stanfield urged that the committees have a joint session for the purpose of effecting plans and arrangements in an effort to hold the coming elections with as little expense to the county as possible. This, it is said by the committee, can be easily done.

Pesky Bed Bugs

The new chemical, P. D. Q.—Pesky Devils! Quietly—actually puts the everlasting to pesky bed bugs, roaches, ants, fleas, impossible for them to exist where P. D. Q. is used. P. D. Q. kills and leaves a coating on their eggs and prevents hatching. A two-ounce package makes a quart of the strongest bug killer on earth. A box of P. D. Q. goes farther than a barrel of old-fashioned bug killers. Look for the devil's head on every box; also patent spout in every box. The P. D. Q. kills fleas on dogs. All leading drug stores.

INFANT IS LEFT ON AN EAST LAKE DOORSTEP

Mother Lingers Until Child Is Safe and Then Speeds Away in Auto.

It is the same old story—a heart-broken mother, a muffled, wriggling bundle on the doorstep; a pathetic note and a hasty escape.

It happened Wednesday night. Mrs. G. R. DeFord, of East Lake, was surprised, on answering a frantic clatter of her doorbell, to find a market basket, and snuggled deep inside a wee bit of humanity, all wrapped and padded, with only its little, round, chubby fists exposed to view. Astonished almost beyond words, she picked up the basket to examine the youngster more closely, and it was then she discovered the note that explained all.

At that moment an automobile horn sounded across the street, and, peering through the darkness, she was just able to make out the form of a large touring car speeding away in the night. The mother who placed the baby on the porch had taken no chances. She risked discovery rather than leave her baby where there might be no response.

Consumed with curiosity to know more about the little visitor, Mrs. DeFord abandoned all hope of recognizing the car and hastened inside to break open the explanatory letter. It was written on a good quality of pale blue note paper. Apparently it had been scribbled off in haste, as several of the sentences were queerly worded. The heart throb and the old, old story was there, though. The text of the mother's letter follows:

"June 5, 1918.
 'Please take my baby boy and bring him up as your own, as I am not able to take care of him. I love him dearly, but want him brought up right by good Christian people.

"He comes from two good families, but, like many another innocent, trusting heart, I listened to one not worthy of my trust, though he is otherwise smart and is of good parentage. I am giving up my boy to you and will never bother you about him. Please do not let him go to an orphanage. If you do not want him, please let some good Christian woman have him. Please, dear people, be good to my boy and bring him up as a Christian. He was born May 25, 1918, at 15 minutes of 5 p.m.

"I have not named him, as I would rather you would select a name to suit yourselves. You may adopt him if you wish.

"With a prayer and a broken heart, I say good-by."

Besides the baby and the letter, the basket contained a few articles of clothing and a thermos bottle. The boy is a handsome, healthy-looking youngster, with blue eyes and dark brown hair. He tips the scales at slightly over seven pounds. Mrs. DeFord said that it has cried very little.

"Yes," she said, when asked what her course will be, "my husband and I will probably adopt the 'little dear.' I hope the mother will find so. As in this knowledge."

Built With Your Vacation in Mind

Redpath Chautauqua

1918—Program—1918

SEVEN CHEER-UP DAYS

Quick to sense the public needs in a year when so many people are planning to take their vacations at home, the Redpath has arranged Seven Cheer-Up Vacation Days for each city on its circuit this season, and offers this Seven Day program for the same price as heretofore, $2.50, except for 10 per cent. War Tax.

You thought when the war broke out that the time to be entertained and inspired had passed; that seriousness and anxious thought must inevitably hold sway.

MILES OF SMILES

When the boys began to go to the front this attitude changed. You did not want them to go away in gloom nor to remember your city as one of sadness. In fact, you sent them Smileage Books and invited them to enjoy "Miles of Smiles."

Then you discovered that you could not do your best work in an atmosphere of gloom and suspense, and that, too, needed relaxation, entertainment and inspiration if you are to perform your greatest patriotic duties and "Keep the Home Fires Burning."

KEEP UP HOME MORALE

The Redpath Chautauqua offers you Seven Days of wholesome fun, genuine inspiration, courage, reassurance, just the thing to keep up the Home Morale.

Because of this, more emphasis has been given to bright, cheery music, gorgeous costumes and scenery, fun and frolic than ever before.

A PATRIOTIC INSTITUTION

Not only this, but the Redpath Chautauqua comes to you as a highly patriotic institution, which, as helped raise the Liberty Loan, entertained the boys in the army camps and educated the American people in the principles of democracy in such a measure that President Wilson has declared the Chautauqua "An integral part of our National Defense."

A WAR-TIME ECONOMY

The lectures this year will be greater, more timely, more enlightening than ever before, the kind that inspire men to heroism and great deeds.

Therefore, all in all, the Redpath Chautauqua comes to your city to help brighten your life and serve your community and your country as a real war-time economy. You cannot afford to miss these Seven Big Cheer-Up Days. Tickets now on sale.

See program for detailed list of vacation attractions.
